

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL 2 on STAGE!

Disney's smash hit musical is LIVE on the CTG stage! The East High gang is all here for an action-packed extravaganza as Troy (Lawrence Patchin), Gabriella (Kamber Moen), Sharpay (Felice Wurst) and Ryan (Tim Kendall), and the rest of the Wildcats finish their Junior year and blast onto the summer scene. They all get jobs at the Lava Springs Country Club where Sharpay reigns supreme since her dad owns the country club and the club's manager Ms. Fulton (Alexis Crane) is anxious to please.

Keeping every ounce of the light-hearted fun that makes High School Musical a household name, this buoyant sequel takes on the questions of real kids facing the realities of the adult world. Friendships are tested, summer romances go haywire, and the meaning of success is re-defined. Growing with the characters, High School Musical 2 doesn't miss one fabulous beat as the kids from East High get a taste of what it means to grow up.

Santa Clarita Regional Theatre Presents RENT at COC

Jonathan Larson's ground-breaking musical, based loosely on Puccini's opera La Bohème opens March 6 at the Santa Clarita Performing Arts Center at College of the Canyons for a limited run.

Rent's creator, Jonathan Larson, died suddenly the night before the off-Broadway premiere of his show. Subsequently, the show won a Pulitzer Prize, and the production was moved to Broadway in 1996 where it gained critical acclaim and won a Tony Award for Best Musical.

Rent follows a year in the lives of seven impoverished young artists struggling to survive and create in New York's East Village. This musical is largely responsible for helping to increase the popularity of musical theatre among the younger generation. The Broadway production closed in 2008, after a 12-year run and 5,124 performances, making it the seventh longest-running Broadway show, eight years behind The Phantom of the Opera. The success of the show led to several national tours and numerous foreign productions, and in 2005, it was also adapted into a movie that features most of the original cast.

AIDS and both its physical and emotional complications pervade the lives of the central characters. David Kenny plays Mark, a filmmaker and the show's narrator, who shares an industrial loft on the lower East Side with his roommate Roger (JD Driskill), a musician. Maureen (Michelle Reyes), is a performance artist who is in a relationship with JoAnne (Lindsay Hough), a Harvard Law School graduate. Mimi (Nikki Berra) is their downstairs neighbor she becomes Roger's love interest as she struggles with a drug problem. The cast is rounded out by Sam Hyde as Tom Collins, Charlie Nash as Angel, a street musician

Spotlight on Wade Bradford

If you saw our recent production of Miracle on 34th Street you got the chance to see Wade Bradford on stage. If you've taken English classes at College of the Canyons, Moorpark or Pasadena City Colleges, you may have seen him teaching. You may also have seen his works performed. Wade, CTG board member, is a man of many interests and talents.

"A plague o' both your houses!"
- Mercutio in Romeo and Juliet

Hysterium in A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum

He hails from the Pacific Northwest – Edmonds, Washington, to be exact – which he describes as “a soggy but beautiful corner of America.” He moved with his family to Southern California at age 19 and discovered Santa Clarita in the 1990s.

When he attended a performance of A Christmas Story, he discovered the CTG. “It reminded me of how much fun community theater could be. Whether as a board member, a performer, or simply an audience member, I’ve been hooked on the CTG ever since,” he said.

Since discovering the CTG, Bradford has been on stage several times, including Romeo and Juliet, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum. Last year, he decided to run for a position on the board of directors, and was elected in June.

Many aspects drew him to the theater – beyond entertainment value.

“I learned that community theaters benefit not just the audience but the entire community. Theater nurtures self-confidence. It brings together people with so many different creative abilities. Theater brings community together,” he explained.

Bradford has seen firsthand how theatre can bring confidence through his work with children. He was the director of the Yorba Linda Civic Light Opera in the 1990s – writing and producing plays for children. Several plays he wrote for children have been produced and performed, and he’s been able to attend some of the shows. “I like seeing what they do – how they interpret the show,” he said. His own children have participated in workshops at the CTG and he says “the workshops have provided a great outlet for socialization” for his daughters, who are homeschooled.

His daughters both performed with him in Miracle and he appreciates the way theatre nurtured the extrovert in them. As a board member, he’s excited about the CTG’s plans to bring a theater devoted to children to Santa Clarita.

Online Ticketing is Coming!

A new and exciting development for the CTG is coming soon! We are creating a brand new web site that will be easy to navigate and chock full of good information. One of the most exciting aspects of this web site will be the ability to purchase your tickets on line. Watch for further information as we jump into the 21st Century!
